

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI TORINO

Democratic Populism in the Margins: Countering anti-immigration populism through democratic praxis

Workshop: Université Savoie Mont Blanc, Chambéry, 24th June 2022

Salle des conseils du LLSETI (10011)

Co-organised by Emma Bell (Université Savoie Mont Blanc : emma.bell@univ-smb.fr) and Filippo Barbera (Università degli studi di Torino : Filippo.Barbera@unito.it)

- 8h45 Welcome
- 9h Paolo Gerbaudo (Kings' College London)
Reclaiming Democratic Control and Collective Planning as a Means to Respond to Right-Wing Populism
- 9h30 Ayhan Kaya (BILGI University, Turkey), Anna Krasteva (NBU University, Bulgaria) and Andrea Membretti (UEF University, Finland)
Endogenous and Imported Populism vs Local Citizenship in Remote Places
- 10h Filippo Barbera (University of Turin)
Power of Recognition, Territorial Inequalities and Public Policies
- 10h30-11h00 Coffee Break
- 11h Alexandros Kiouпкиolis (Aristotle University, Thessaloniki, Greece)
Populism, Commons and Environmental Movements
- 11h30 Stella Lallement and Lalla Amina Drhimeur (Sciences Po Lyon)
'Ascending Nationalism', Local Democracy and the Concept of a New Citizenship
- 12h Jean-Louis Marin-Lamellet (Université Savoie Mont Blanc)
What we talk about when we talk about "populism": Populism in the US in the 1890s and its transatlantic fate
- 12h30 Emma Bell (Université Savoie Mont Blanc)
Citizenship Beyond the Nation State: A Radical Democratic Response to Anti-Immigration Populism
- 13h00-14h00 Lunch break
- 14h-16h00 Round table with
Sarah McKinley (The Democracy Collaborative)
Camille Arnodin, Sylvine Bois-Choussy & Stéphane Vincent (Région 27)
Yessica Holguin and Salvador Gonzalez (Community Wealth Building)
- 16h00-16h15 Break
- 16h15-17h00 Next steps